At the Golden-Acorn in White-Fryars, London, coming down by the Green-Dragon Tavern in Fleet-street, is lately come in a curious Collection of French Books and Pamphlets which was Collected out of several good Libraries, great many of them being scarce and valuable, and were to be sold at the Rates following, viz. Sermons at 1 s. 6 d. per Dozen, Letters and Memoirs at 4 s. Voyages and Travels at 4 s. Husbandry and Trade at 4 s. Civil Law and Common Law at 4 s. Plays at 6 s. Poetry at 4 s. Chancellors, Judges, &c. Speeches in Parliament at 1 s. 6 d. with a variety of Miscellanies at 2 s. Note, That any Person may be supplied with Acts of Parliament, Proclamations, Declarations, Grants, Votes of Parliament, &c. according to the Method of Wm Miller late of London Stationer, the Trade being continued. Also a choice Collection of Pamphlets bound, with variety of Manuscripts. Note further, that there is a choice Collection of Tracts in most Volumes to be sold.

Ninety odd Gallons of neat true French Brandy, lately imported from North-Britain, better was never Tasted, as all that understand it will allow, to be sold at 12 s. a Gallon, which is the price daily given for it by the Tun; none left than a Gallon: At the Soap-maker's within 3 Doors of Ludgate-hill in the Old-Baily. Above 100 Gallons of it has been sold for 12 s. 6 d. and 13 s. a Gallon, nor would what's left be sold under, did he not want the Room it takes up, and the Money in his Trade.

The small remainder of the Zant-Wine (the Palm Canary Wine being all sold) is to be had, to make an end, at the Attorney's office, viz. 30 s. a Dozen Bottles, and all, none less than 3 Bottles, at a Glasser's near Skinner's-Hall on Dowgate-Hill. 'Tis a Noble Wine, no Champagne or Burgundy drinks finer, and the longer 'tis kept, the better it drinks; and for real truecens of Wine 'tis not to be exceeded in London, nor will the like for Price and Goodness be to be sold when this is gone.

Just publish'd,

A new and exact Plan of Doway and Fort Scarpe, as now fortify'd; Done from the Original printed at Brussels by Men. Priex. With it is a Map of the Country about Doway, Arras, Lens, La Bassée, Ipres, Tournay, Lille, Conde, Valenciennes, Quenoy, &c. Sold by C. Browne at the Globe by St. Paul's, where the Original may be seen.

Excellent English Barrel Soap, sold only by the Maker Wm Cowland, at the 3 Pigeons and Crown in the Old Baily near Ludgate, for ready Money at 48 s. a Barrel, who by a peculiar Art (known to none but himself) has now so exceedingly improv'd it both for Scent and Service, that it's admir'd by all chemists, is not only Odoriferously pleasant and delightful to smell to, but also very Profitable, inasmuch that Families and Persons who spend much Soap, find it their interest to use it; that it's every way as good to wash with as the best Crown Soap, goes as far, keeps much better and longer, and (which adds to its excellency) so delicately whitens, clears, preserves the Strength, and keeps from turning Yellow the finest Linens, &c. as to outdo all others forsoever whatever, for which Reasons it is highly esteem'd by the nicest and best Families in the City of London, who will now none else: 'Tis likewise the cheapest and best for scouring of Silks, Wool and Woollens, and for that purpose has gain'd very great repute in many parts of the Nation. Any Person for a year may send for so a small quantity as a half Firkin, which contains 11 Pound weight, Price 6 s. being but 3 d. Farthing a Pound. To be had only at the Place aforesaid where also may be had the best of all other sorts of Soap, Wholesale or Retail at the most reasonable Rates.

The famous Chymical Quintessence of Bohee Tea and Cocoa Nuts together, wherein the Volatile Salt, Oyl and Spirit of them both, are chymically extracted and united, and in which all the Virtues of both Tea and Nut are essentially inherent, and is really a pleasant, refreshing Preparation, found upon experience, to be the highest Restorative that either Food or Physick affords, for by it all Consumptive Habits, Decays of Nature, inward Weakness, thin, or emaciated Constitutions, Coughs, Asthma's, Plethicks, Loss of Appetite, &c. are to a Miracle retrieved, and the Body, Blood, and Spirits, powerfully corroborated and refresh'd. A few Drops of it in a Dish of Bohee Tea or Chocolate, is the most desirable Breakfast or Supper, and curies for Virtue and Nourishment, so Dishes of either without it being more nutritive and supporting. Likewise to strengthen the Back, prevent Mifarrriages, cause Procreation and Conception, it is beyond all Medicines, as those that once take it will find, and scarce ever live without it. It is also the only true Cure for vapours and Melancholy, for those Diseases being occasion'd by the Poisons of the Blood and Spirits; this Quintessence cures by its enriching and enlivening Properties. Is only sold at Mr. Laurence's Tryal-Shop at the Sign of the Griffin, the corner of Buckenbury in the Poultry, at 5 s. the Bottle, with Printed Directions.
